Social Studies - Chapter 4: Living Together.

Directions:

Response Journal: After reading pages 47-59, in your reading response journal for Social Studies, write a one page double spaced response to one of the following questions in the first person:

1. You are a new immigrant to Canada. You have lived in Canada three years and wish to apply for citizenship. However, a good friend of yours who immigrated into Canada with you, suggests that you should not become a Canadian citizen. He argues that there are no advantages, it costs money, and you have to take a test. But you think that your friend is wrong. Explain why it is important to become a Canadian citizen. Outline the advantages of becoming a Canadian citizen rather than staying a landed immigrant.

2. You are on a selection panel for the Medal of Bravery. You have to select a number of heroes this year to receive the medal. What are your criteria for choosing who receives one of these medals? (What is a hero in your opinion? What qualities do they have to have? What sorts of things can they have done to qualify as a "hero"?
